Golden Gopher
Challenge Big

By Don Bryant
Star Sports Editor

Chapter 37 in one of the most colorful football series in intercollegiate football will be transcribed at Memorial Stadium this afternoon when the University of Nebraska Cornhuskers face a mighty challenge from the Golden Gophers of Minnesota.

Game time is 2 p.m., and more than 38,000 eager Husker fans are expected to be on hand. The weather man, however, forecast showers and thunderstorms.

Cause for this gigantic interest in the Cornhuskers dates back just one week. Then, an improved but underdog band of Nebraskans joined in the Big 8's greatest day by bopping the highly-touted Texas Longhorns, 14-13.

Testifying to the caliber of the Gophers is the fact that Nebraska hasn't been "installed" a top-heavy favorite in this 37th meeting between the two old rivals. In fact, some quarters rate the Minnesota behemoths a slight favorite, while most observers are tabbing the game a toss-up.

Nebraska rooters, who have cheered such sparklers as upsets over Oklahoma, Pittsburgh and Penn State in recent years, are hoping the Huskers can come up with another dandy and justify their ranking as the No. 12 team in the land.

It will take considerable doing, since the records show Nebraska has never beaten the Gophers twice in succession. Last year the Huskers used Minnesota boos-boos to pile up a 32-12 win, but it won't be this easy today.

Coach Bill Jennings of Nebraska—named Coach of the Week by the UPI after the Texas stunner—will unveil the most talented collection of Huskers seen at Memorial Stadium during his regime. And he's hoping it will be enough to throw a halter on the Gophers, who boast great size, experience and considerable speed.

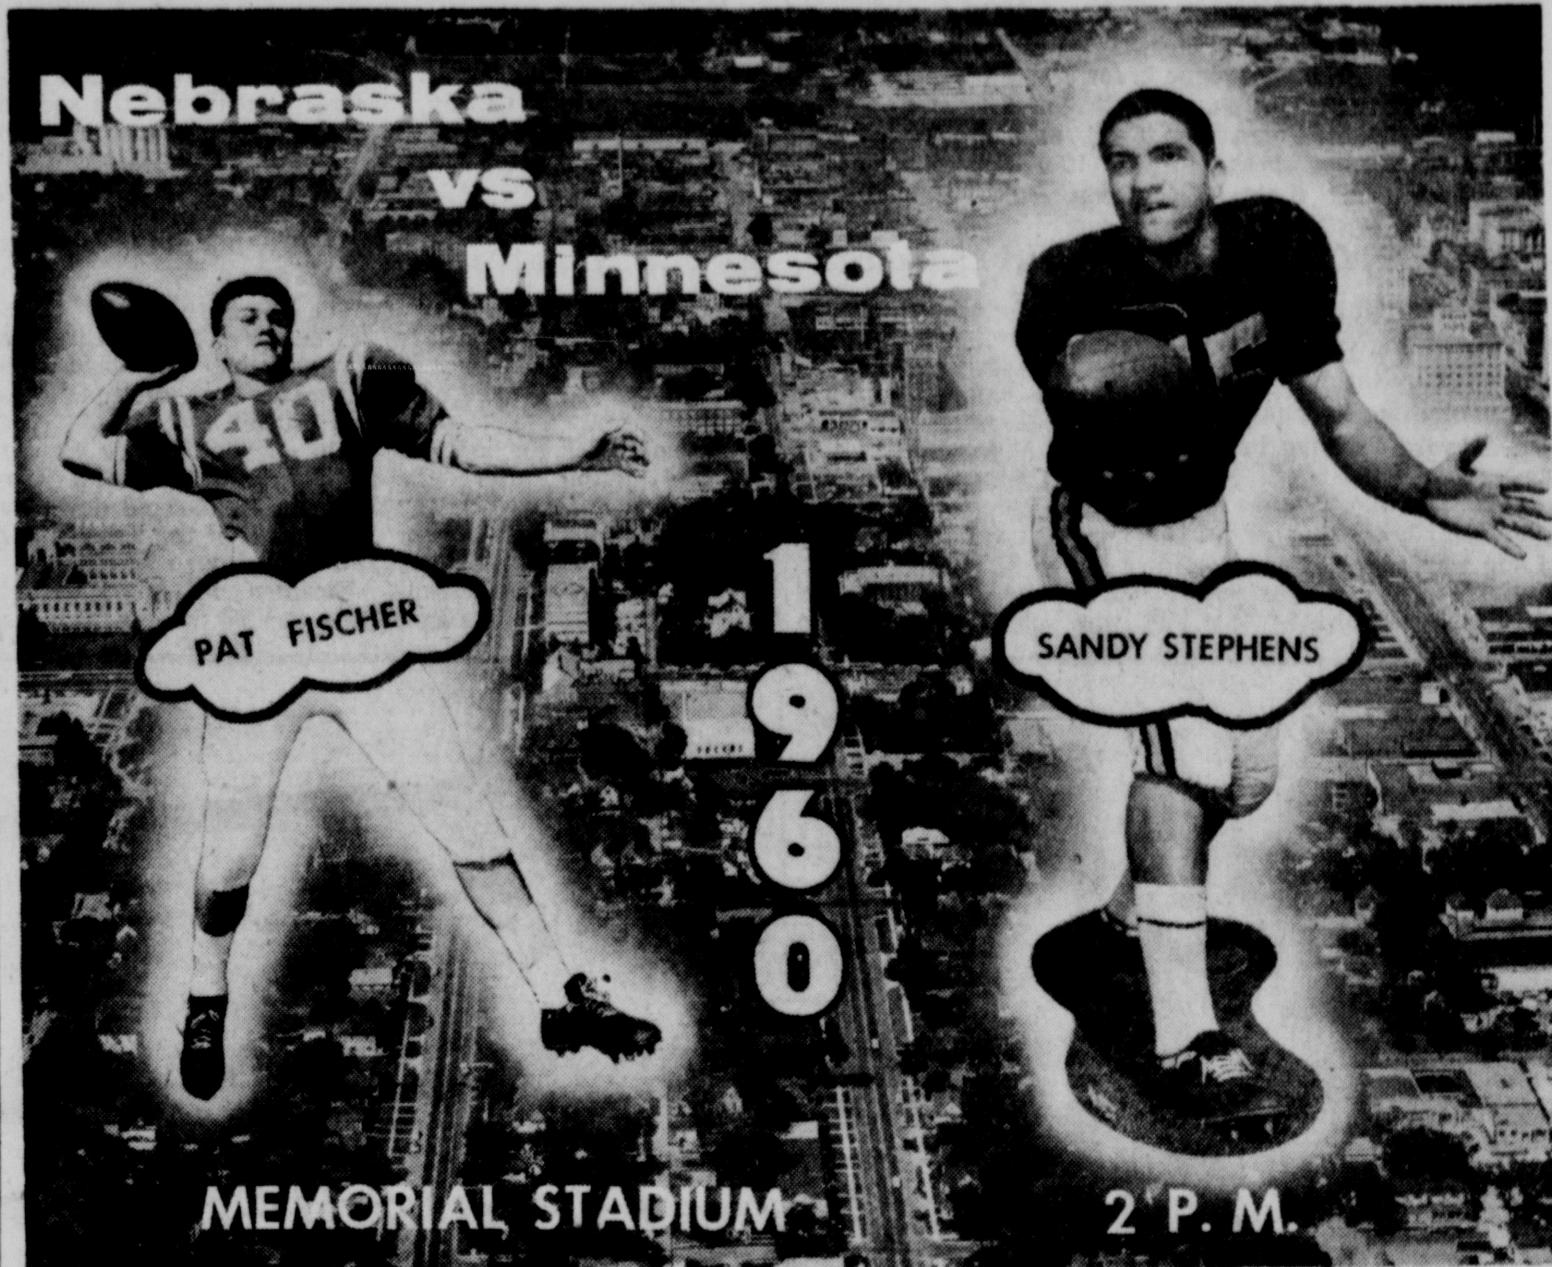

Spearheading the NU attack will be quarterback Pat Fischer, who ran for two touchdowns and passed for the winning two points against Texas. And he'll be calling the shots for two sophomores who also performed brilliantly at Austin, left halfback Bernie Clay and fullback Thunder Thornton. Veteran Clay White, who ran wild at Minneapolis last year, will be on hand at right halfback.

But the big chore will fall to the Husker linemen who must combat a mastodon Minnesota forward wall which averages 221 pounds. The issue may well be settled in this department.

Assigned the vital role of opening and plugging holes in the Gopher beef trust are fellows like Ron McDole, George Haney, Darrell Cooper, Dick Kosier, Bob Jones and others, all of whom were outstanding at Texas.

Husker flanks, thinned by the loss of Jim Huge this week, will be manned by All America candidate Don Purcell and Bill Comstock, a sophomore who broke in in style last week.

Minnesota will feature a great runner in quarterback Sandy Stephens and one of the Big 10's top lines, anchored by middle guard Tom Brown, a 243-pound giant.

Bob Kennedy Promises Farmer-Run Program

By Don Walton
Aurora—Bob Kennedy told the Nebraska farmer Friday that his brother would insist on "a farm program run by farmers" if he is elected.

Kennedy, 33-year-old younger brother of Democratic presidential nominee John Kennedy, spoke to a gathering of some 200 farm people here in the high school auditorium.

Earlier, he had addressed a University of Omaha student convocation and a fundraising luncheon in Omaha, and a reception gathering in Lincoln.

Kennedy completed a full day's barnstorming in Hastings Friday night at a fund-raising dinner.

The key to victory this fall, he told Democrats, is a combination of active voter registration and "hard work."

"Registration can make a major difference in Nebraska," Kennedy told Omaha's fund contributors. "We can win here."

Lincoln guests were told that the election "could be decided in Nebraska by a few votes."

Former Lincolnite Ted Sorenson, administrative assistant to the senator, will be "one of the key advisors in the White House" if Kennedy wins, brother Bob told him.

"He would continue to play a very important role in a number of fields."

"Advice, Guidance"

"Sen. Kennedy looks to him for advice and guidance."

At Aurora, Kennedy slashed at the Eisenhower administration and Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson for "not being sympathetic" toward the nation's farmers.

He cited the drop in farm income and heavy loss of family farms as reasons why the farm problem is "the most important domestic issue" of this campaign.

"When the farmer suffers in Nebraska," Kennedy noted, "this affects his buying power, and thus the entire economy."

The farm problem, he said, is "a problem for all of us."

Nasser Joins Other State Heads In N.Y.

...Eisenhower Returns To Washington

New York (P) — A smiling President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic flew in Friday to swell the star-studded ranks of foreign heads of state, here for the United Nations meeting. A few hours earlier, President Eisenhower departed the hectic scene and returned to Washington.

Nasser, hatless and wearing a gray suit and white tie, landed at Idlewild Airport at 4:32 p.m. (EDT) and stepped onto America's soil for the first time.

About 400 diplomats from Arab and Asian states welcomed him, plus about Nasser 1,000 others outside the immediate arrival area. Among the greeters were 50 members of an American Negro Nationalist movement, with signs proclaiming "Allah is the Greatest."

Major American Jewish organizations decided not to demonstrate against the Arab leader, despite his bitter enmity toward Israel. They reasoned that any indignities they might inflict on him would only worsen already grave Arab-Jewish relations.

Brief Statement
In a brief statement in English, Nasser said he hoped to

Cooper, Morrison Agree On Corporate Stock Amendment

Rival gubernatorial candidates Frank Morrison and John Cooper have endorsed Constitutional Amendment No. 2 which would permit Nebraska corporations to issue preferred stock with or without voting power.

Democrat Morrison and Republican Cooper were guest speakers at a Friday noon luncheon of "The Committee for Amendment Two" at the Cornhusker Hotel.

"It's a sound tool that will benefit Nebraska economy," said Cooper, recalling that as a state senator he helped place the amendment on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Morrison said Nebraska's corporation laws belong in the "horse and buggy days" and inadequate laws have driven investment capital to other states.

The attorney noted the Auditorium Loses $22,000; Figure Lower Than Expected

Lincoln's Pershing Municipal Auditorium showed a $22,969 operating loss for the 1959-60 fiscal year as compared with $26,969 in 1958-59.

However, this was considerably less than the $45,000 predicted at the 1959 budget hearings of the City Council.

The unaudited 1960 audit report showed income of $120,949 (not including a $25,000 appropriation from the contingency fund) and expenses of $143,918.

Cash balance for the start of 1960-61 operations is $5,611. This resulted from the contingency fund appropriation and idle fund interest earnings.

Net performance receipts were $83,544 and concession receipts were $37,405. Leading expense items were salaries, $74,828; electricity, $10,055; heat, $4,914, and water, $1,105.

Concessions showed a net income of $12,122 compared with $9,977 last year. The performance receipt net was $83,544 compared with last year's $78,571.

The 1959-60 operating loss

Living Costs Climb Halted

Washington (P) — August living costs held at the July rate, interrupting a slow, persistent rise that began in January. But the upward movement is likely to be resumed this month.

The Labor Department Friday reported the consumer price index for August at 126.6, the same as July. This means that prices were 26.6% higher than the 1947-49 average which is used by the Bureau of Labor Statistics as the basis for comparisons.

A spokesman saw "slack in the economy," but no signs of a price-reducing recession or depression.

join with other U.N. nations to "create a more favorable atmosphere for the establishment of peace based on justice."

The small daughter of an Arab diplomat presented Nasser with a bouquet. But when he tried to kiss her she burst into tears and burned away.

Nasser will make his headquarters, when not at the U.N., at Sands Point on Long Island.

Khrushchev, meanwhile, strode out of his Park Ave. headquarters in late afternoon for a sidewalk ceremony in connection with a 2 1/2 foot American Indian peace pipe presented to him by an East Side antique dealer, Watson Pierce.

Clowns It Up

The Soviet Premier clowned it up for photographers, pretending to smoke the pipe and holding it up to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, who has been cast as a straight man occasionally during Khrushchev's outbursts of banter.

"I've smoked sufficiently," Khrushchev finally announced.

President Eisenhower drew a tumultuous farewell from New Yorkers as he drove to Idlewild Airport. Police estimated half a million persons lined streets and expressways to cheer him—4 times the number that welcomed his arrival Thursday for his momentous U.N. address.

The chief executive got a tremendous lift in spirits from the turnout. He smiled, waved and held up his plane's departure to individually shake hands with the 60 motorcycle patrolmen of his motorcade escort.

bly "we will not and cannot, and should not tolerate disarmament being made into a sheer propaganda battle." And speaking of Khrushchev's proposal on colonies, the U.S. representative found it strange "from a country whose imperialism has embraced more people, more territory and more oppression than anything else the 20th century has ever seen."

The United States feels colonialism must go, he said, but he said the Soviet pressures will make the task more difficult than ever.

"But there is a second and possibly even more serious crisis, a crisis which consists of an attempt to destroy the office and the very structure of the secretary general and the secretariat, and through it to destroy the United Nations," Wadsworth said.

"... The United Nations, Mr. President, must face this crisis head on. If it does not, it will fail."

Delegates Bewildered

Khrushchev's flurry of proposals appeared to leave many of the delegates bewildered, and some were concerned that he had set back rather than advanced the cause of easing tensions. As an Indian delegate—representing the "neutrals" to whom Khrushchev was appealing—put it: "President Eisenhower opened the door yesterday, but Khrushchev certainly slammed it shut today."

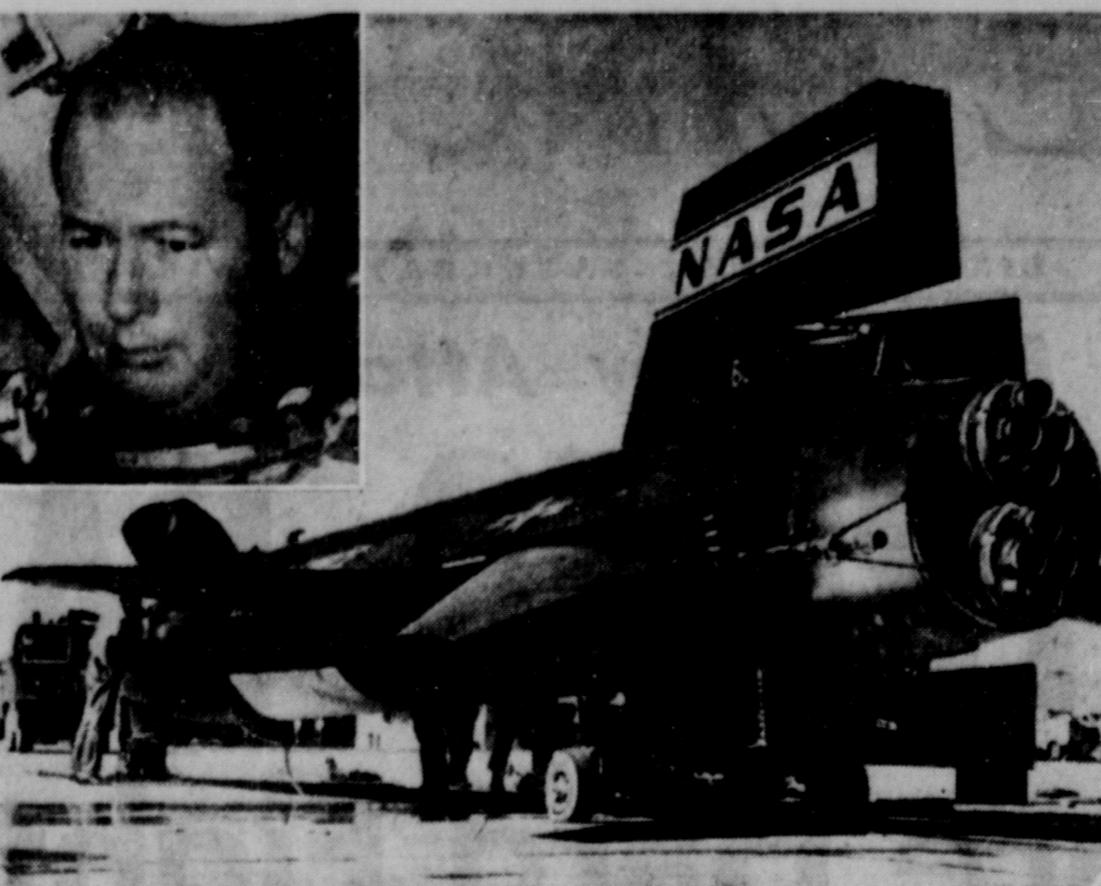

Among west European delegations there were expressions of dismay. The British summed it up by assessing the Khrushchev speech as having wrecked much of the chances for a start toward real progress on easing tensions at this assembly session. And Khrushchev's proposals on revising the U.N., some said, could wreck the world organization.

Castro Laughs

Most delegates listened somberly as Khrushchev demanded a shakeup in the U.N. and its removal from New York. But Cuba's Fidel Castro broke into delighted laughter when Khrushchev made his suggestions. The Soviet Leader and Castro have been restricted in their movements to New York for security reasons.

The Soviet Union itself originally supported the location of the United Nations headquarters in New York in 1945. Khrushchev now proposes that the entire elaborate $70 million plant, for which the United States supplied most of the money, be abandoned and a new start be made elsewhere, perhaps even in the U.S.S.R.

Khrushchev's two hour and 20 minute arm-waving speech of 18,000 words came one day after President Eisenhower had urged all nations to use U.N. machinery to the utmost to settle dangerous disputes. The Russians did not applaud when Eisenhower finished, and Friday the U.S. delegation, including Secretary of State Herter, refrained from applauding Khrushchev.

Lt. Cmdr. Forrest S. Peterson, above, brought the X-15 rocket plane in for a successful forced landing on a dry lake bed near Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., after the engine failed in mid-flight. It was Peterson's first flight in the ship. He achieved an altitude of 50,000 feet and a speed of 1,056 mph before the engine cut out. Cmdr. Peterson's home is at Gibbon, Neb., where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Peterson live. He was born in Holdrege.

Hocker To Oppose Long In Missouri Senate Election

Jefferson City, Mo. (P) — Lon Hocker, St. Louis lawyer, was nominated by the Republican state committee to oppose Lt. Gov. Edward V. Long in the unexpired term of the late U.S. Sen. Thomas C. Hennings.

Long was appointed earlier to serve in the Senate post until the special election Nov. 8, when a successor to fill the remaining two years of Hennings' term will be chosen.

Long was nominated by the Democratic state committee which administered a 30-14 defeat to Rep. Charles Brown of Springfield, the candidate supported by former President Harry S. Truman.

Gov. James T. Blair said he was appointing Long to serve until the election to give him a seniority advantage over other new senators in the event he was elected next month.

Nomination of Hocker was by acclamation after the only other candidate, Dewey Short, assistant secretary of the Army, withdrew. Hocker was the unsuccessful candidate for governor 4 years ago.

6 Injured, One Seriously, In 2-Car Crash At Emerald

Two Lincoln girls and 4 Grand Island men were injured, one seriously, in a two-car crash Friday evening in Emerald at the intersection of U. S. Hwy. 6 and State Spur 806 to Denton.

All 6 were taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

In serious condition with a crushed chest and severe forehead and scalp cuts was the driver of the westbound car, Louis H. McKenzie of Grand Island.

The 3 passengers in his car were identified by hospital officials as Samuel J. Elder, 28; Lester B. McDonald, 45, and Russell E. Diercks, 42, all of Grand Island.

Elder suffered a broken leg left, McDonald a possible broken leg and possible internal abdominal injuries and Diercks two broken legs and a possible fractured jaw, officials said.

They were reported in fair condition early Saturday as were the two Lincoln girls.

The Safety Patrol said they were the driver of the second car which was turning into a service station, Miss Christine M. Kessler, 19, of 6600 Havelock, and her passenger who was thrown 70 feet from the car.

2-Car Crash Injures 4

Four youths were listed in fair condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital early Saturday after they were injured in a two-car smash-up at 11th and E.

Hospital officials said they were Gary Ferryman, 19, of Carter Lake, Ia., the driver of the southbound car. He and 3 passengers suffered various cuts and bruises.

The passengers were listed as Jerry Peterson, 20, of Omaha; Joan M. Leffler, 18, and Mildred A. Lukas, 18, both of St. Elizabeth School of Nursing.

Natural Causes Are Ruled In Farmer's Death

Deputy County Attorney William Blue said early Saturday that the death of a farmer found in his home near Sprague apparently resulted from natural causes.

Blue said Allison Lyman Clark, 52, was found dead by a brother, Kenneth C. Clark, who went to the home Friday evening.

Blue said Allison Clark was last seen Monday and apparently had been dead for several days. He lived alone, Blue said.

Photographer Added To Firefighting Force

Woman Fined For Stabbing Of Husband

Ollie Mae Butcher of 724 No. 22nd was fined $50 Friday by County Judge Herbert A. Ronin for slashing her husband with a butcher knife Wednesday after a family argument.

Mrs. Butcher, 36, pleaded guilty to an assault and battery charge. She told the judge that her husband had slapped her before she wounded him.

Her husband, William, 42, is listed in fair condition at a local hospital.

Dep. Co. Atty. William Blue told Judge Ronin that Mrs. Butcher had cut her husband after another argument Sept. 8 but that he did not require hospitalization for this wound. Blue said Butcher did not want to press charges against his wife for either incident.

Wesleyan Marching Band Has New Look For Opener

Wesleyan University's marching band — 103 strong and featuring a "new look" — makes its first appearance of the 1960 season Saturday night.

The band will present the halftime show during the football game between Wesleyan and Doane College.

Director Robert Marshall announced personnel for the band. He also announced the "new look," completely new dual purpose uniforms.

The basic uniform, he said, is in the form of a dark brown tuxedo which will be worn by the concert band on tour next spring. The tuxedo

Seberg's Husband Won't Recognize American Divorce

Paris (AP) — Francois Moreuil, French husband of film actress Jean Seberg, refused Friday to recognize a divorce issued Thursday by an American court at Marshalltown, Iowa.

Moreuil, a former lawyer who gave up his job to become a film producer and back his wife's career, told a reporter the only competent court would be in Paris.

"We've been living here since our marriage, it is our legal home, so it is the Seine Tribunal which alone can handle our divorce," he said. "I'll apply to it and regard its judgment as the only valid one."

'Most Undignified'

The young film producer — he is 26 — charged his wife with having behaved in "the most undignified manner."

"She owes almost everything to France," Moreuil said. "She became a film star in France, she became a French-woman when she married me according to French law, but she took refuge in the States rather than to apply to a French court when she felt it more convenient."

Moreuil was angry and upset that the American court had accused him of "mental cruelty" against his wife.

"I was not even summoned, warned or questioned by this court. I learned I got divorced through the radio and the newspapers."

Station No. 1 at 10th and Q. Benton said the photographic coverage of fires will aid his department in 3 ways: in arson investigations, in the fire inspection program and in training of firemen.

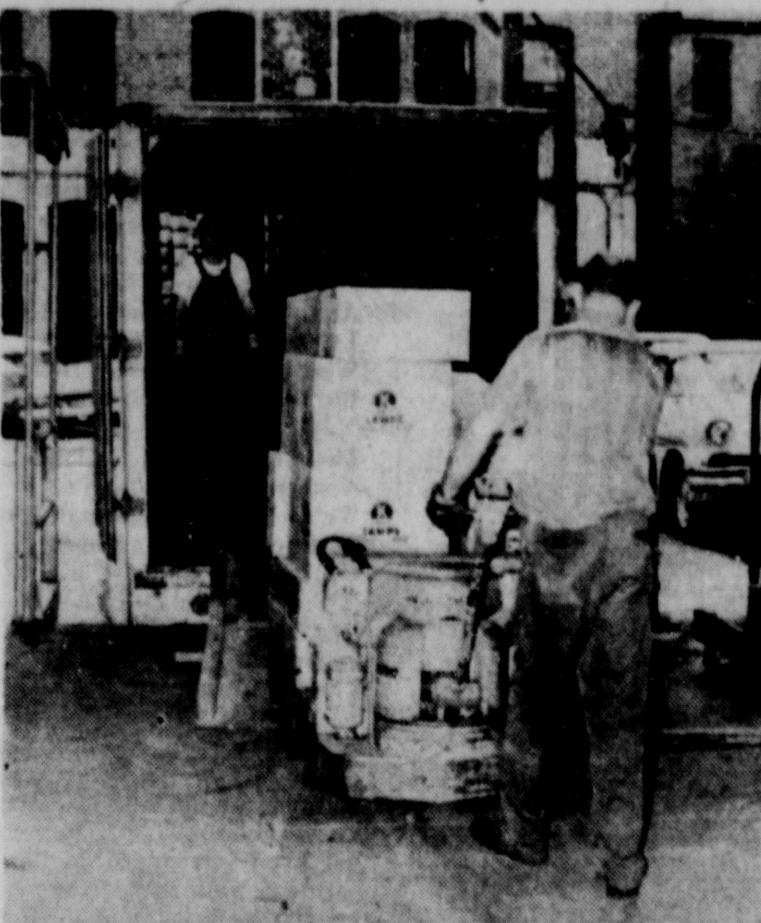

Photographs would prove valuable as court evidence in arson cases, he said, and added it has been found in other cities owners of buildings containing fire hazards are more co-operative when they know written reports on the violations will be backed up by photos.

Benton said the department's training program also will be strengthened by having photos of proper firefighting procedures and also of firemen fighting actual fires to study.

The chief said the department has not yet purchased a camera and that it probably will be several months before the darkroom is ready for use. An unused shower room is being converted into the darkroom.

Benton said chief inspector Dallas Johnson, an amateur photographer, will be the department's photographer. He has previously taken some polaroid-type photos of recent fires.

The assignment of Johnson to the task will not take a fireman from a fire rig as Johnson's duties already are of an investigative nature.

Western Electric Moves Out

With only 40 employees left in the quarter-block building at 13th and Q, operations of Western Electric have been reduced to moving out, closing up and shipping. The plant, which completed its last production work Sept. 15, will be put up for sale. (Star Photo.)

WE Plant Almost Shut Down; Mid-November Marks End

Closing operations at Lincoln's Western Electric plant are in the final stages with only 40 employees occupying the 6-story building at 13th and Q.

Grey Jewett, assistant plant superintendent, said that production of long distance dialing equipment at the Lincoln plant ceased Sept. 15, and remaining workers are aiding in the relocation of equipment at other WE plants and the distribution of orders.

Final shipments will be completed by mid-October, Jewett said, and the Lincoln plant will lose its last employee by mid-November.

Of the 340 employees still working for the WE plant in Lincoln last Jan. 1, 40 remain, 160 have been placed in other WE plants at Millard, Kansas City and Oklahoma City.

Other employees received severance pay at the rate of one week's salary for each year of service up to 8 years, and a graduated lump sum payment for workers with 8 to 15 years of service ranging from 9 weeks pay to 24 weeks pay.

Workers with 15 or more years of service receive 24 weeks' pay plus 3 weeks' pay for each year of service over 15.

Pertinent Question

Memphis (AP) — A busy lawyer strode into the waiting room at his office, trailed by his young son. Around the crowded room, heads lifted hopefully. The counselor stopped at his secretary's desk and said, in ringing tones: "Afraid I'll have to be out in the county all afternoon, taking depositions." The patient waiters waited. The lawyer marched sternly toward the door. At this point his son spoke up plaintively. "Daddy," he asked, "does that mean we aren't going fishing after all?"

The state committee authorized a committee headed by Mrs. L. A. Eneren and Dr. Otto Hoiberg to send a questionnaire out to 35 test communities in the state, sampling opinion on what are

First Woman Engineer At NU Still Surprises

By Jim Woodson

A civil engineering class at the University of Nebraska, holding an outdoor practice session in the looping of a tape measure, received an unusual visitor when an attractive middle-aged woman strolled up and asked to try her hand at the tape.

To the amazement of both the professor and class, she executed the motion with both ease and skill, later introducing herself to the group as Miss Meredith Thoms, the first woman ever to receive an engineering degree from the University of Nebraska.

Earned Masters

Miss Thoms, in Lincoln this week visiting a relative, graduated from the University in 1929 with a bachelors degree in civil engineering; then, two years later completed her studies for a master's in the same field.

For the first two years of her college life, Miss Thoms was the only woman in the department of engineering.

Studies Water

Following this task, she worked for a while as a stenographer in the department, then moved to Hastings where she took a position as hydrologist with the Central Nebraska Public Power Co. Other jobs followed, taking her to Seattle, then later to Portland, Ore., where she is now employed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers as a hydraulic engineer on the Columbia Basin Inter-Agency Committee, a federal agency.

According to Mrs. Thoms, her present position is every bit as interesting as her "breakthrough" in NU's engineering school, her primary task being to determine how much water will be available for public power in the Columbia River Basin area in the year 2010.

Students Speak

In a panel discussion on youth's view of its problems, several University of Nebraska students told the adult group that the problem of retaining qualified young people within the state is a major problem.

Gov. Dwight Burney also emphasized the importance of the state group, and agreed that it was important to "get your teeth into" some specific program as soon as possible.

Miss Hiatt

Miss Naomi Hiatt, executive director of the Illinois Commission on Youth, cautioned the state leaders to organize their efforts on a specific program, coordinating already-existing local and regional organizations.

Miss Hiatt suggested that one possible project which would involve groups interested in health, welfare and education was the establishment of a residential treatment center for mentally disturbed children.

Too many projects would weaken the work of the committee, she warned, while a specific project which could be accomplished within 5 years would be more successful and would be more likely to gain support and aid from other organizations.

The state committee authorized a committee headed by Mrs. L. A. Eneren and Dr. Otto Hoiberg to send a questionnaire out to 35 test communities in the state, sampling opinion on what are the major local problems in the field of youth work.

Gov. Dwight Burney also emphasized the importance of the state group, and agreed that it was important to "get your teeth into" some specific program as soon as possible.

The committee representatives agreed to plan a full conference of the 150-member Committee on Children and Youth for later in the year, and to consider formation of a Youth Council as an auxiliary to the adult organization.

Mrs. Howard Kelly of Grand Island presided over the planning meeting.

ries in those days also, according to Miss Thoms:

"I do remember one particular incident during my college years which created quite a scandal around Lincoln. It seems that each year the engineering students would build a blimp to advertise E-Week and also each year the law students would try to tear it down."

"In 1928 the same such situation occurred, but this time the E-students retaliated by traveling en masse to a law fraternity house on R Street, where they proceeded to bombard the residence with eggs. The incident caused quite a scandal and resulted in the students from both groups having to dig up $2.3 apiece to cover the damage which was done."

After graduation from college, Miss Thoms began work on a "Water Resources of Nebraska" report being prepared by Clark Mickey, then head of the Civil Engineering department.

The Penitentiary blood program is termed by Red Cross officials the largest single operation in the Nebraska region.

This reward to the donors adds up to more than 25 years for the 672 participating in the program.

Over the 11-year period that the bloodmobile has been making stops at the Penitentiary, the inmates have donated 7,163 pints of blood, according to Warden M. H. Sigler. This blood is distributed throughout Nebraska.

The Penitentiary blood program is termed by Red Cross officials the largest single operation in the Nebraska region.

Mr. Whitney, the highest point in California, and Death Valley, the lowest point, are only 85 miles apart.

D Street, south on 35th to A, east on A to 40th, and south on 40th to Sumner and then to 48th. The route will then proceed north on 48th to Valley Road which runs back into D Street completing the route.

The old route went straight to 40th Street on D instead of cutting off at 35th as the new route does. The change was made to include more people in the route.

The commission also approved schedule changes for American Buslines and the Greyhound Corporation.

American Buslines added a meal stop at Lexington on its Omaha to Bushnell route which means the bus will arrive 10 minutes later.

Greyhound was allowed a schedule change allowing the bus to leave 15 minutes later in Omaha to allow the bus to make connections with a bus arriving from Minneapolis.

The bus had previously left Omaha for Lincoln at 5:30 p.m., the same time the Minneapolis bus arrived in Omaha.

In other action the commission:

—Denied authority to Burlington Railroad to discontinue its agencies at Elsworth and Bingham.

—Set a hearing Oct. 6 for Midstate Telephone Co. of Northwell and General Telephone Co. of Columbus for approval of sale of the telephone plant, property and facilities of the Midstate company to General Telephone Co.

—Hearing for Oct. 18 continued to Nov. 13 for Alter Transfer of Pierce for authority to change the shipment charge minimum to $3.00.

—Set a hearing for Sept. 27 at North Platte for authority of Home Telephone Co. of Brady to adjust its rates and charges for service for Maxwell effective on the first billing date following conversion to dial operation.

Co. Canvassing Boards To Meet On Veterans Day

The fact that the day the county canvassing board is to meet following election day is Veterans Day and a holiday does not postpone that meeting to the next business day.

The attorney general said this is an opinion Friday requested by Secretary of State Frank Marsh.

Statutes provide that the governor shall proclaim Nov. 11 as Veterans Day. In the present election year, Nov. 11 happens to be the Friday following the general election, the same day the canvassing board of counties is required to meet.

The opinion said the designation of a day as a legal holiday does not invalidate official or judicial acts performed on that day unless the statute clearly prohibits those acts.

The opinion said there is no specific prohibition in the statutes against county officers carrying on official business.

France Far Behind

Paris (P) — The rush hour on the Champs Elysees seems like a nightmare of traffic, but France will not reach the United States' density of automobile population until 1975. That's the word of auto magnate Henry Pigozzi, who reports the percentage of car registrations for lower paid workers has passed from 15% in 1955 to 28% in the first half of 1960.

Top Aides Of Lumumba Arrested; Congo Threatened With Epidemics

Leopoldville, The Congo (P) — Forces of Col. Joseph Mobutu arrested two of Patrice Lumumba's most fanatical followers Friday but still hesitated to take direct action against the deposed premier himself.

Mobutu's men picked up Antoine Gizenga, deputy premier in Lumumba's government, as he left the official residence where Lumumba is living under U.N. military protection.

Maurice Mpolo, Lumumba's minister of youth and sports, was the second man arrested.

Tried To Sway Army

Mpolo appeared briefly in a general's uniform in Lumumba's last chaotic days in power and tried in vain to swing the Leopoldville garrison to Lumumba's side.

Meantime, the U.N. World Health organization reported a serious threat of epidemics of bubonic plague, smallpox, sleeping sickness, malaria and other diseases caused by the breakdown of medical services in rural areas.

Several persons have died of plague in one village of Kivu Province. About 100 doctors and health engineers are to be moved into the area. Army authorities said Gizenga and Mpolo were arrested for plotting against the Army's strongman Mobutu. They were linked with demonstrations at Camp Leopold II Thursday when some soldiers twice gathered around Mobutu's house to press demands for increased pay.

The demonstrators were dispersed when Mobutu's bodyguard fired shots over their heads. A few junior officers who had been seized as hostages by the demonstrators were released unharmed and order was restored.

There was no indication how Gizenga and Mpolo were involved. The demonstration showed, however, that some soldiers in Leopoldville — though generally obeying Mobutu's orders — are never far from mutiny and could not be relied on in case of serious trouble. This apparently is the reason Mobutu has failed to press an arrest warrant against Lumumba signed by President Joseph Kasavubu.

The mixed unit of U.N. troops from Ghana, Sudan, Morocco, Tunisia and the United Arab Republic guarding Lumumba's residence has orders to protect Lumumba against anything except a "legal arrest warrant." No such warrant has been presented to the U.N. so far.

Backed up by 14 growling police dogs trained to attack people in clothes, she held off a boatload of census men Thursday when they tried to land on her private "Island of the Sun" in Rio Bay.

"If you want to count us, take off your clothes," she shouted.

Now a census official has appealed to Senorita Luz Del Fuego (translation: Fireball) through the newspapers to accept a new solution:

The census bureau will appoint Fireball (who is a stripper in clothed society) the official census taker on her island with full pay, if she will dress up and report to census headquarters.

Sertomans Given Top Award By International President

The Lincoln Sertoma Club was presented the International Club's Excellence Award as the outstanding club for 1960-61 by Sertoma International President Lyle Knoll of Aurora, Colo., formerly of Crete.

Accepting the award for the club was Tom Yaussi, who served as club president for the 1959-60 period in which the club earned the award.

Judging for the excellence award is based on the following: sponsorships, fund raising programs, extension, membership, member retention, attendance, life membership, convention attendance, convention exhibit, directors' meetings, and secretaries' reports.

Should Be Proud

"All of Sertoma is proud of what the Lincoln Sertoma Club has done, and Lincoln Club should be proud of it, too," Knoll said.

Noting the $33,000 raised by the group to sponsor its charitable activities during the 1959-60 period, Knoll also pointed to the 14,000 man hours the Lincoln members devoted to their club work.

"The sponsorship of Cedars Home is one of Sertoma's finest and best recognized activities," he said, as well as their work with youngsters in high schools.

Most Outstanding

"All of their work in the community is of very high caliber," Knoll said, "and we are happy to be able to recognize the Lincoln club as our most outstanding."

Guests from Fairbury, Beatrice, Crete, York, Hastings, Grand Island, Columbus, Fremont and Omaha were introduced by present Club President Jack Plamondon at the

State Register Is Recommended For Official Notices

There should be a "Nebraska State Register" similar to the "Federal Register" in which administrative agencies could publish official notices, a committee of the Nebraska Bar Association has recommended.

In a report prepared for delivery to the bar's house of delegates Oct. 5, the Committee on Administrative Agencies said the Register would solve the problem which is becoming increasingly acute — publishing widely enough the notice of hearings after which administrative orders are made.

The report cited an example in which the Nebraska Supreme Court recently voided

"Yet," said the committee, of which Edson Smith of Omaha is chairman, "those entitled to notice may be so multitudinous that giving them personal notice is not feasible."

Intense Bob Kennedy Like a 'Coiled Spring'

By Don Walton

An intense young man who reminds you more than anything of a coiled spring—swept across 200 miles of eastern Nebraska Friday on a dedicated mission.

Shock-haired, Ivy-cut Bob Kennedy was out looking for votes.

More than that, the campaign manager of presidential nominee Richard Nixon tells you "we never had it so good," Kennedy continues.

"Sen. Kennedy tells you that you can do better."

My brother, Bob Kennedy suggests, "will not accept" Soviet space leads, Latin American discontent, African ties to the Soviet Union, anti-American violence in Tokyo, or Communism in Cuba.

The domestic problems of the U.S., he points out, "will be attacked and met with vigor and determination" under a Kennedy administration.

Once finished with the pep talk, the intense young man moves to the people, shaking hands, posing for pictures and exchanging greetings.

In Omaha he spoke to 500 persons at two appearances; in Lincoln, he met about 100; at Aurora, there were 200 more, and the final Hastings appearance drew 400. Kennedy will be in Kansas City Saturday, then return to Nebraska to speak at a fund-raising dinner in Sidney Saturday night.

Burney To Offer Atomic Energy Post To Rogers

Governor Dwight Burney indicated Friday he will appoint Dr. E. A. Rogers, director of the State Health Department, as the state's first atomic energy coordinator "if he wants it."

Burney met Friday with Robert Berkshire of Omaha, chairman of the Nebraska Bar Association's Committee on Atomic Energy Law, to discuss the matter.

Burney said Berkshire suggested Rogers as the state's coordinator of atomic energy control.

The 1959 Legislature passed a bill providing that the governor appoint a state officer as atomic coordinator.

Under the coordinator's supervision, all state departments were to make studies as to need for changes in the laws that result from use of radioactive materials in the Democratic nominee.

The coordinator was also to recommend any changes in the law to the Legislature.

The meeting was cancelled because of muddy roads, but some 200 farm people gathered instead at the Aurora High School auditorium to listen to Kennedy and visit with him.

Young Kennedy traveled through Bradshaw enroute to Aurora.

Jensen said he expects John Kennedy to win Nebraska this fall with the aid of widespread farmer support.

Small Business Prospects Great, Administrator Predicts

By Gerry Deal

There is a great future for small business, particularly as long as opportunities in the suburbs grow with more and more people moving from the main part of town to the suburbs.

This was the opinion voiced by U.S. Small Business Administrator Philip McCallum in an interview Friday.

McCallum, appointed to the position by President Eisenhower last year, was in Lincoln to address the University of Nebraska Law Institute, sponsored by the Law College and the Junior Bar section of the Nebraska State Bar Assn.

He pointed out that with the predicted population of 220,000,000 in 1970, "we must naturally think small business will play a part."

Most Are Small

In noting the role of small business in today's world, McCallum said that 95% of the 4,659,000 businesses in operation at the present time are in the small business category.

He defined a small business as one which employs 250 persons or fewer.

The administrator said he would like to get someone in Nebraska to set up a government-backed small business investment firm.

He said there are 131 such firms in the United States, but none in Nebraska. Two Minnesota firms are authorized to do business in Nebraska, however, and small Nebraska businesses have taken out 497 loans worth $19,125,000 under the program.

Loans Authorized

Congress authorized small business investment loan firms in 1958, and since then firms have been organized which will soon have $148 million in capital.

The purpose of the firms is to provide long-term loan funds and equity capital to small businesses. The SBA licenses and regulates the firms, which are set up by private businessmen, and, under certain conditions, helps finance them.

McCallum also said Nebraska communities who have development corporations to attract industry may be eligible for SBA loans to pay for land, plants or factory conversion.

To be eligible, a development corporation must have a "broad base of ownership", and must also meet other requirements which are available from the SBA's regional office in Omaha.

Interest 5 1/2%

These loans are classified as intermediate term, and may be made for as long as 10 years, and may pay up to 80% of the value of the project the corporation wishes to undertake. The interest on the SBA's share of 101 disaster loans worth $500,000 to small Nebraska businesses since 1953, including 45 during the last calendar year in Nebraska flood areas.

McCallum was accompanied to Lincoln by Harold Putnam, counsel for the U.S. Senate select committee on small business.

Four loans of this type worth $187,000 have been made to Nebraska development corporations, he added. The SBA has also made interest on the SBA's share of 101 disaster loans worth $500,000 to small Nebraska businesses since 1953, including 45 during the last calendar year in Nebraska flood areas.

United Nations, N.Y. (AP) — Nikita S. Khrushchev got in some commercials during his U.N. speech.

Taking a drink after 18 minutes of talk, he said:

"This is excellent Soviet water... I recommend it to you."

Wetting his throat again at the 1 hour 2 minute mark, he observed:

"Barzhom, an excellent water."

At the 2-hour mark he poured another glass, drank deep and announced:

"I am near the end and I am drinking this excellent Barzhom water to the bottom."

Barzhom is one of the most popular brands of Soviet mineral water.

Golden, Cigarette Tax Chief, First Demo Fired

By Betty Person

Governor Dwight Burney has asked for the resignation of Frank Golden, chief of the State Cigarette Tax Division and Lancaster County Democratic chairman, it was learned Friday.

This marks the first resignation the Republican governor has requested since taking over the reins of state government 2 weeks ago from the late Governor Ralph Brooks, a Democrat.

The resignation is to become effective October 1.

Jobs Conflict

Burney said he asked for Golden's resignation "because he's holding another official position which I think is not conducive to good government."

Asked if it was the two jobs alone, or the nature of the second job to which he objected, Burney said: "He's not supposed to hold any other job, and it's one which I didn't think would do us any good."

Asked if he anticipated asking for any other resignations, Burney said, "There may be some others. I don't at this time anticipate that they will be extensive—it depends on the kind of cooperation I get."

No action has been taken yet on a successor.

State Agricultural Director Pearle Finigan, under whom Golden worked, confirmed

Friday that Burney had asked him earlier this week to request the resignation, and that he had complied in a letter to Golden Thursday.

The letter was forwarded to Golden who is at Palo Alto, Calif., attending a meeting of the National Tobacco Tax Association.

Out of State

In his letter, Finigan expressed his appreciation for the "opportunity to work with you, and I am grateful for the extreme cooperation and fine job you have done, both for this Department and the State of Nebraska."

Golden, former U. S. marshal, was appointed chief of the division April 1, 1959 by Brooks.

He was appointed chairman of the Lancaster County Democratic organization in February of this year upon the resignation of A. Clifford Anderson. Golden won election to the post May 26, 1960.

Fire Department Adds 9; Training Begins Monday

Nine new firemen will report for work Monday. Fire Chief Roscoe Benton announced Friday.

Benton said the men will undergo a 6-day training program under the supervision of department training officer Don Venter before they are assigned to fire stations where they will receive additional on-the-job training.

The City Council authorized hiring 8 new men and the 9th man is filling a vacancy on the department.

9 new firemen:

Larry Schenkel, 22, of 2728 Dudley. Gary Johnson, 21, of 2236 No 56th. Andy Banders, 21, of 2236 No 56th. Darryl Nockley, 24, of 2048 D. Don Beines, 21, of 1311 Court. Lester Ladd, 24, of 2236 No 56th. Ronald Long, 21, of 6409 Plate. Marvin Ostwald, 23, of 413 No 28th. Floyd Bryson, 27, of 4523 O.

It took a leading soft drink company 58 years to sell its first billion gallons of syrup; nine years for the second billion; only six years for the third. This tremendous and constant increase in consumption of soft drinks led manufacturers to invest over $8 million in national newspaper advertising last year.

Here and There

Saturday morning—and the game, guest and party themes are predominant in the news—not only for the current week end but next week end as well.

Let's talk about one of the traditional affairs, first—Each year (for the past three years) Bruce Bergquist and Tom Morrow have been hosts following each first home game.

This year is no exception to the rule—and this afternoon, after the game, Mr. Bergquist and Mr. Morrow will be greeting over a hundred guests at their home.

Added to the game-guests list for the current week end are the names of Mr. and Mrs. John Lauritzen of Omaha who will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Alloway.

Today Mr. and Mrs. Alloway and their guests will join a pre-game luncheon group at the University Club.

And just now we learned that Dr. and Mrs. Harry Stickler of Corona Del Mar, Calif., arrived yesterday for an overnight stay as the guests of Mrs. Stickler's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Mowbray.

Dr. and Mrs. Stickler stopped off in Beatrice—where they visited Dr. Stickler's family—and Lincoln en route home from South Bend, Ind., where their son, Newell Stickler, entered Notre Dame University as a freshman.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Mowbray complimented the visitors when they entertained a small group of guests informally at dinner at the University Club.

Now on with the game festivities—We understand that Mr. and Mrs. James MacLean are to be a host and

With one heady victory in hand for Nebraska University, the pigskin parade is getting into full swing once again. Congratulations are in order as they prepare for the first home game against Minnesota this Saturday.

Joining in the football festivities Saturday with Lt. Col. and Mrs. Glen Lally will be week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Muntean and Mr. and Mrs. A. Sabaski and son, James all from St. Paul, Minn.

Maj. and Mrs. John Crook's houseguests this week were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nicholson and Mrs. Ed Boicourt from Fullerton, Calif.

Maj. Crook's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams of Baxter, Tenn., are arriving for a week's visit.

Overnight guests at the quarters of Maj. and Mrs. Arthur Thoms were cousins Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grant of Park Ridge, Ill. They were accompanied to Lincoln and LAFB by Mrs. Thoms' mother Mrs. Matthew Dailey of Chicago who will make an extended visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sinclair from San Antonio, Texas, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Clark Bower.

Lt. and Mrs. Maurice Wood, Vashon, Washington, paid us a welcome visit and it's nice to catch up on family news.

Vacationers Lt. Col. and Mrs. Robert Murphy are back home from a leave which took them as far as San Francisco . . . from what we hear, it's the best vacation yet!

The welcome mat is out for Lt. Col. and Mrs. Ness and their family, Miss Kathleen, Patrick and Philip.

Tour of the Town

Took another tour of the town this morning to see what was what activity-wise—and there is plenty that is, and is not happening.

But before we begin on future events may we remind you again that Sunday is Art Tour day—a tour of five Lincoln homes where one may see how works of art readily adapt themselves to gracious living.

And just in case we didn't mention it before—the tour is between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock.

By this time everyone knows that the Community Playhouse membership campaign is underway—it began on Monday with a morning coffee at the home of Mrs. J. Edmunds Miller.

We thought perhaps the Lincoln Symphony Guild might have plans for a membership drive this month—but learned that it is waiting until early October. The campaign for new members will begin on Oct. 3, with a morning coffee at the home of Mrs. J. R. Seacrest.

And of course early October—Tuesday, Oct. 4, is the day a new season begins for the Lincoln Junior League—the Leaguers will have a morning meeting which will be followed by a luncheon—when new provisionals will be presented.

It could be the early morning chill in the air, but we began thinking of things that usually happen in the late autumn—and in December—Wondered, for instance, if the Delta Gamma alumnae were planning another pilgrimage of homes—all decorated for Christmas—

We learned that the DG's are passing the pilgrimage this year—but have plans for a tremendous bridge party in February.

It was wishful thinking that prompted our query to Delta Delta Delta about its fantastically successful "Tea-Tasting" affair last year. Our hopes were dashed—no tea-tasting this season.

SUBURBIA

PATRICIAN HEIGHTS

We heard that Mr. and Mrs. Donald Danker had guests at their home last Sunday. Their guests for dinner were Mr. Danker's aunt, Mrs. G. P. Spence, and Miss Jeanne Danker of Kearney. We might mention that Miss Danker is attending the University of Nebraska where she is a senior and she is making her home with Mrs. Spence this year.

HOLLYWOOD HEIGHTS

A change of address to note this morning in the suburb is that of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rollogas. The Rollogas family moved recently from 5630 Wilshire Blvd., to 3840 No. 52nd.

DEAR ABBY: I thought your advice to "STRAIGHT UP AND DOWN" was literally straight up and down. To put it still another way: "What Nature has forgotten Stuff with cotton."

SYMPATHETIC

DEAR ABBY: I have a son, 19, who has just gone back to college for his second year. His girl friend, who is 18, has enrolled in the same college as a freshman. They went together all last summer. When she went on a vacation she wrote to him every day.

I was cleaning out my son's bureau drawers and came upon a pack of her letters. I was shocked to learn that they had been intimate. Now that they are out of town attending the same college I am worried sick about what might happen. The girl's parents live in this town, but we don't have enough in common with them to discuss anything like this. I haven't even told my husband yet. I don't know where to turn for help.

CONCERNED

DEAR CONCERNED:

Man comes into this world naked and there is no embarrassment, so why should there be any if he goes out the same way? Let him sleep the way he wants to.

DEAR WORRIED:

You and your husband and the parents of the girl have a great deal in common.

Namely, the welfare of your children. First, tell your husband. Then meet with the parents of the girl and tell them. YOUR son and THEIR daughter need some guidance. And fast!

BY STEVIE DORT

Hi Again!

After two weeks of school and three exciting football games, we at Lincoln Southeast are pretty proud of our school, team and Pep Club. Last night the Knights played Hastings at the Public Schools Oval.

Car caravans before home games have been leaving Lee's parking lot area each week. With black and gold crepe paper flying in the wind and horns blowing loudly, the route to the oval is begun.

Varsity football members will be "Knights in Shining Armor" this season as they will be wearing new football uniforms. Gold uniforms and black numerals were initiated at the Southeast-Omaha Westside game.

Being offered at LSE for the first time this year is the Russian language. The student list is growing and soon the course will begin.

"Closed Campus" lunch periods brought many changes to Southeast this fall. A new system of five lunch periods and a cold lunch line are being tried. Whole cantaloupes are brought by some and divided into quarters. If you have milk and a sandwich, you're set!

Sox' Wynn Shuts Out Tribe, 7-0

Cleveland (A) — Burly Early Wynn kept Chicago's fading pennant hopes alive Friday night with a 7-hit shutout as Ted Kluszewski drove in 3 runs with a homer and a single in a 7-0 victory over Cleveland.

Triumph left the White Sox 4½ games behind New York. The Yankees' magic number for the American League pennant is 4.

Four straight singles, capped by Kluszewski's bases-loaded single to right, gave the White Sox two runs in the first inning.

Minnie Minoso doubled home Jim Landis in both the 5th and 7th innings.

Another Chicago run scored in the 8th on singles by Sherm Lollar and Sammy Esposito and a throwing error by Ken Aspromonte.

Kluszewski hit his 5th homer in the 9th off Frank Funk. The loser and starter was Barry Latman (7-6), who had won 6 straight.

Nursery Notes by Bob Campbell

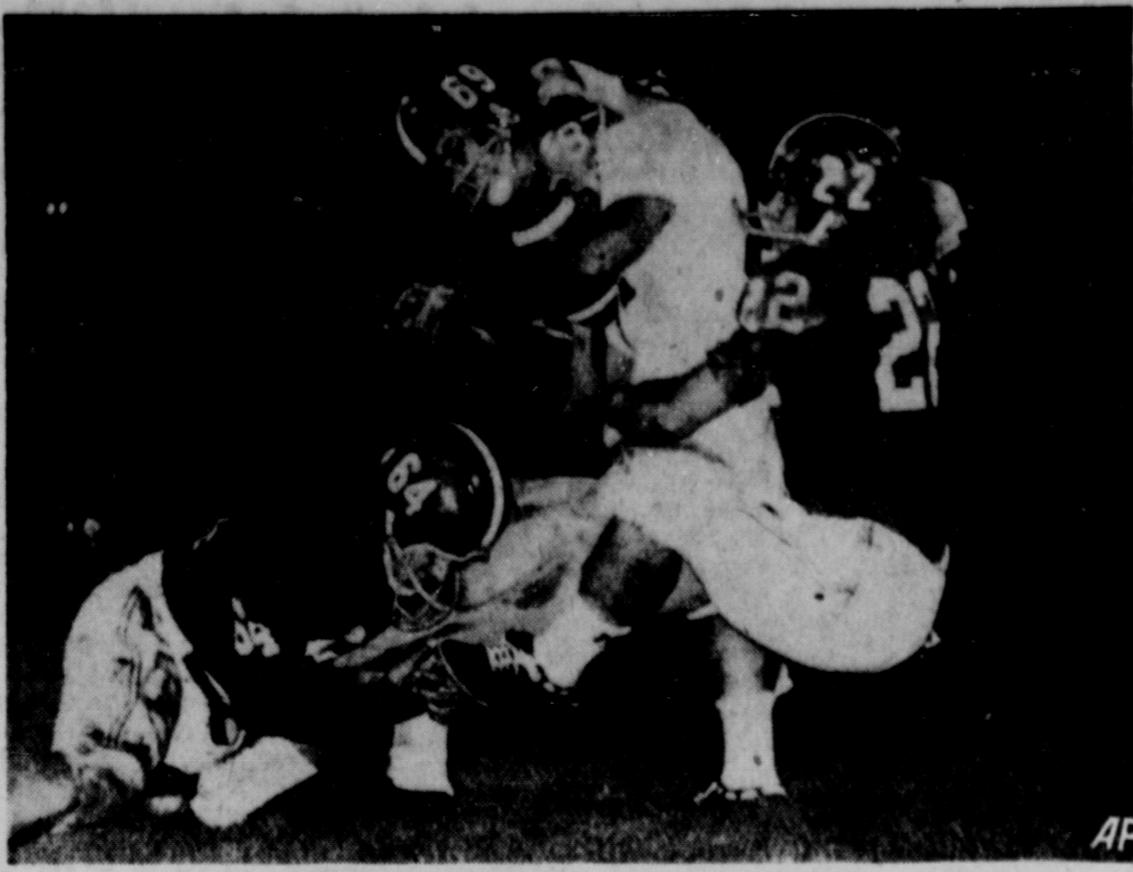

Our telephone is constantly ringing and people are asking if the webworm is still working, or that they are still seeing damage and will this quit soon or should they spray with chlordane. The answer is that the webworm will work as long as we have hot weather and can do more damage than the cost of the chlordane it will take to kill them. So our advice is Spray.

There is still time to get those lawns seeded in Sept., and as far as we are concerned this is about the last of the good fall seeding weather. October lawns can be good, but if we have an early winter they can be doubtful.

We started to dig a few Pfitzer Junipers, Andorra Juniper and some of the very low Bar Harbor Juniper this week, but the weather has turned off warm again and we are only digging what we can bring into the lath house and harden off for planting. We are in hopes that the weather will cool soon so that we can get into full production and will then fill our lath houses with all sizes of quality evergreens from our fields. More next week about Evergreens.

Pinch hitting Jesse Gonder led off, and reached first base on shortstop Don Buddin's throwing error. Tony Kubek sacrificed him to second. Hector Lopez doubled in a run. Roger Maris singled in another.

Mickey Mantle walked. Bill Skowron's bad-hop single, his 4th hit of the day, drove in another, and singles by Yogi Berra and Bob Cerv produced two more.

That was more than enough to wrap up Bob Turley's 9th win in 12 decisions.

K.'s Plan

By J. M. Roberts

Associated Press News

Analyst

Nikita Khrushchev showed clearly yesterday that he knows how to end the cold war if he wished, and then proposed to draw a new and bitter line of demarcation which would intensify it in the United Nations.

At one point in his speech he held up the master key to the whole world situation:

"We do not wish to foist our system on other countries," he said, a contradiction of everything for which international communism stands, a contradiction of what he himself has said repeatedly. It would have been a world shattering statement—if he hadn't made it so many times before, and if anybody could believe it in the face of what he has just been up to in the Congo.

Before the cold war can end, it will have to be said by someone who means it and, moreover, someone with the power to make it stick, which Khrushchev has not, either in Moscow or Peiping.

Khrushchev cited the need for independence of all nations—in a cynical effort to retrieve the Soviet prestige lost in the Congo affair—but didn't offer it to the European captive states.

Would Intensify Cold War

There were numerous other passages which sounded high-minded and conciliatory.

Shows Pique

Then he got around to the pique Soviet Russia has displayed so clearly over the U.N. intervention in the Congo, which undercut her plainly revealed effort to add another country to the captive list and extend the cold war to Africa.

Eliminate the secretary-general's office in the U.N., he asked, and administer the work of the organization by committee—a committee with strictly drawn lines between communists, the nations aligned with the West and the neutrals.

Khrushchev has a right to like the committee system of administration. He used it well for his own personal aggrandizement in the U.S.S.R. after Stalin's death, and now it doesn't exist there any more than in other places where it has been tried.

Has 2 Motives

Khrushchev knows that his effort to draw fighting lines in the U.N. will not be taken seriously. But he had two motives. By making it struck at Secretary-General Hammarskjold, who has just received overwhelming small-scale support for his interpretation of Security Council instruction regarding the Congo. Then he smoothed down the small-nation feathers by proposing to give them ostensible recognition as a force equal to the two major contending forces.

Some of the small nations may fall for this pretense of adding to the importance which they expect to assume anyway through their increased numbers in the General Assembly.

But the odds are that, in the competition between Eisenhower and Khrushchev for small nation goodwill at the outset of this Assembly, the President's list of achievable objectives is way ahead.

Co. Treasurer Liable For Determining Fees

The attorney general said pay all fees and costs. In an opinion Friday that the county treasurer is liable for all fees and costs incurred in the determination of inheritance taxes with one exception.

That exception is in those cases brought by a person other than the county attorney where there is a determination that no tax is due. In that case, the opinion said, the person who petitions for such determination must

MORE GET ADC DURING AUGUST

More persons received aid-to-dependent-children and aid-to-the-disabled payments during August than the same month last year, but there were fewer recipients under the old-age assistance and aid-to-the-blind programs, the Nebraska Welfare Department announced Friday.

There were 10,701 recipients of ADC during the month, counting children and adults in their families, and the average received in total benefits per person was $30.31. Last year it was 10,380 recipients and a $28.63 average.

For the disabled, there were 1,833 cases in August compared to 1,564 last year, and the average was $73.90 compared to $73.26.

In old-age assistance, there were 14,832 cases in August receiving a $73.72 average, compared to 15,581 last year receiving $70.37.

In aid to the blind, there were 818 cases receiving $88.59 compared to 924 cases in August of last year receiving $86.78.

The amounts received were composed of federal, state and county funds, and included direct payments and medical costs.

Liquor Commission Sets Hearing Oct. 5

The State Liquor Commission Friday set a hearing Oct. 5 on application for a retail Class C liquor license by Harold P. Savidge of Oakdale.

Protests have been filed.

Rose Nazeck of Omaha pleaded guilty and waived hearing on suspension or revocation of a retail Class C liquor license.
